

Westminster
FAITH DEBATES

Women Bishops – what difference does it make?

The Church of England recently appointed its first female bishops. In other churches and other faiths, there have been women leaders for some time. This free public debate draws several of them together to ask what difference women bishops are likely to make.

Tuesday
26th May 2015
6:30–8:00pm
St James's Church
Piccadilly London
All Welcome

Westminster FAITH DEBATES

Organised by the Westminster Faith Debates, Lancaster University, with The Faiths & Civil Society Unit, Goldsmiths University of London & hosted by St James's Piccadilly.

The Westminster Faith Debates bring together leading academics and public figures to debate the latest research on religion and values.

Speakers

NISSA BASBAUM

Dean of the Diocese of Kootenay, British Columbia

KATE BOTTLEY

CofE vicar and FE Chaplain

HILARY COTTON

Chair of WATCH (Women and the Church)

ADAM DINHAM

Director Faiths & Civil Society Unit

SALEHA ISLAM

Director of the Muslim Cultural Heritage Centre

LAURA JANNER-KLAUSNER

Senior Rabbi to the Movement for Reform Judaism

KATHARINE JEFFERTS SCHORI

Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church of the United States

HELENE MOBIUS

Pagan Federation Prison Ministry Manager

BHARTI TAILOR

Executive Director, Hindu Forum of Europe

LUCY WINKETT

Rector of St James's Piccadilly

LINDA WOODHEAD

Director Westminster Faith Debates

www.faithdebates.org.uk #FaithDebate

Lancaster
University

Supported by Lancaster University, Goldsmiths University, London, the Arts and Humanities Research Council, the Economic and Social Research Council & St James's Church, Piccadilly. Register via the website, or telephone 01524 510826

SAINT + JAMES'S PICCADILLY