

Westminster
FAITH DEBATES

SOCIAL COHESION: LESSONS FROM THE PENNINES

The Midland Hotel, Forster Square, Bradford, West Yorkshire, BD1 4HU
Wednesday, 10th June 2015

PROGRAMME

- 1.00 p.m. Registration and Lunch
- 2.00 – 3.00 p.m. Panel 1: Clarifying the challenges in the Pennine region, past and present.
Dr Paul Bagguley, University of Leeds
Dr Philip Lewis, Peace Studies, University of Bradford
Nadeem Mir, Retired Chief Inspector, Rochdale Police
Andrew Pratt, Bishop's Adviser & Co-ordinator for Interfaith Work, Blackburn Diocese
- 3.15 p.m. Panel 2: Strengthening cohesion - what has worked?
Lisa Cumming, Programme for a Peaceful City, University of Bradford
Meg Henry, Schools Linking Network
Raja Miah, UpRising Manchester
Father Philip Sumner, Executive Officer, Oldham Interfaith Forum.
- 4.15 p.m. Refreshment break
- 4.30 p.m. Panel 3: What still needs to be done?
Anjum Anwar, Dialogue Development Officer, Blackburn Cathedral
Dr Joyce Miller, Former Head of Diversity & Cohesion, Education Bradford
Prof Paul Thomas, University of Huddersfield
Mike Waite, Community Engagement Office, Burnley Council.
- 5.25 p.m. Closing comments by Rt Revd Dr Toby Howarth, Bishop of Bradford
- 5.30 p.m. Close